

Hey parents,
grandparents, aunts,
uncles, cousins-- anyone wanting to help kids you know
learn more about who God is and what it means to JOIN Him as He redeems the world!!

We have posted this information to serve as a guide and tool for you to continue to teach truth to your kids, young or old, at home. Enjoy!

These lessons are adapted from ones developed for teaching on Adventure Mountain (4 years through 5th grade) and in our Junior High (6th through 8th grade) classrooms on Sunday mornings at Fellowship Bible Church. Additional resources that would help expand the truths of these lessons would include: The Attributes of God for Kids, by Lydia White and Taylor Nelson. Based on Tozer's book for adults, Knowledge of the Holy, this workbook-style guide presents God's unique and moral attributes in a family-friendly presentation. Also, The Jesus Storybook Bible by Sally Lloyd-Jones, serves as our Bible story resource for these lessons. Don't have a copy of that story book? Email mary@fbccs.org and we will get you a copy!

Each lesson could be presented and discussed in one-sitting; or spread out with different sections presented over several days of the week.

We will post a new lesson each Friday or Saturday previous to the week of its assigned date. That way you can go back and review any truths from earlier lessons.

ARE YOU A MIDDLE SCHOOLER?:

KEEP SCROLLING! To the MIDDLE SCHOOL FAMILIES section for this week's learning ideas

DON'T MISS IT! Just for fun . . . check out the Fun Photo Challenge explained at the end of each week's lesson. Great for Adventure Mountain families AND even greater for Middle School students!

PS—To help us plan for future weeks, let us know if you used and found these lessons and activities helpful, or even fun! You can let us know by email at mary@fbccs.org. Thank you!

“What comes into our minds when we think about God is the most important thing about us.”

APRIL 5

PASSION WEEK

ADVENTURE MOUNTAIN FAMILIES (ages 4 -5th grade):

Not really an Easter Egg hunt, but . . . sometime this week, you should receive an Amazon package to scoop off your front porch or mailbox! Go ahead! Open the box! Inside you'll find a copy of the book: The Garden, The Curtain and the Cross and a workbook with activity sheets. Read the book this week and have fun completing the activity pages. Bring any completed worksheets back to Adventure Mountain, when we return to building. The book is yours to keep--a better Easter treat than anything a bunny will bring!

In addition to the story and worksheets, enjoy the following activities and links. The CREATE IT section is particularly clever . . . get it? (Palms!). Don't forget to submit your FUN PHOTO CHALLENGE pictures!

Read It

Read the stories from the Jesus Storybook Bible from pages 280 – 309

Watch It

Create It

Complete activity sheets from the Garden, The Curtain, and The Cross workbook. If you have green paper at home (or even white paper you can color green!), just trace your hands onto the paper, cut them out, and glue them together to make a palm leaf! See the picture below.

SNAP it

Fun Photo Challenge: See if you can imitate the faces of the people from the page in the book where the temple curtain tears in two (my personal favorite page)! Didn't get a copy of the book? Take a pic of your most shocked and surprised face! Seriously—how would you look if the IMPOSSIBLE happened??? Take your pic and send it to mary@fbccs.org

MIDDLE SCHOOL FAMILIES (grades 6th – 8th):

Get out your art supplies and the biggest piece of paper you can find, or a bunch of little ones that can be glued together to create a collage! You'll need everyone's help to create a week-long illustration of this week in history thousands of years ago. A week that changed the world! Dad, Mom, Siblings: Join the project and add your creativity. You can complete the drawing in one sitting, or add to it each day of the week. Save your completed murals, collages, family collaborations and bring them with you when we return to the building. We'll have a Passion Week Art Show!

A bit of BACKSTORY: Passion Week takes place between Palm Sunday and Easter Sunday. This name represents the passion with which Jesus willingly went to the cross. He did this to pay for your sins—the sins of all of His people; to complete God's plan of redeeming His creation; to crush the head of the serpent! Need more of a backstory? Read Genesis 3:1-15.

Sunday: Read and illustrate Matthew 21:6-11

Monday: Read and illustrate Matthew 21:12-15

Tuesday: Read and illustrate Matthew 23:13-33 (These seven woes Jesus pronounces on Israel's religious leaders are truly astounding! In addition to some interesting illustrations you can create for this passage, see if you can determine what behavior Jesus found so evil in each of the "woes".)

Wednesday: Read and illustrate Luke 22:1-6

Thursday: Read and illustrate Luke 22:7—23:25

Friday: Read and illustrate Mark 15

Saturday: Read and illustrate Matthew 27:62-66

Sunday: Read and illustrate John 20
